Join communities across Somerset taking action for nature in churchyards and burial grounds!

Wilder Churches: Welcoming New Communities

Wednesday 29th March, 7pm – 8:30pm

Online via Zoom

To help nature recover, more people need to take action for nature, and we want to support them at each step along the way. This dedicated online event is aimed at anyone interested in managing churchyards or other faith-associated space with wildlife in mind. Pippa Rayner, Somerset Wildlife Trust's Engaging with Nature Coordinator, will introduce Wilder Churches, what it is all about, what has been happening and how you can get involved in your community.

Sara Emmett, Climate Justice & Environment Advisor from the Diocese of Bath and Wells will also speak about why taking action for wildlife is important to the Diocese and be on hand to answer any questions.
