Police updates

PCSO Linda has been assisting with the Minehead Beat over the summer period due to demand. But I am pleased to say Linda is back on the Exmoor beat along with Michelle and James.

PCSO Michelle has been busy with pop up police posts at Brushford, Winsford and Brompton Regis to engage with our communities, catching up with any concerns and local issues. Mobile patrols have made in Clatworthy, Brompton Ralph. Huish Champflower, Porlock, Simonsbath, Exford, Wheddon Cross and Withy Pool.

First visit this autumn to Cutcombe Market we are keen to engage with our farming community and remind everyone to check their security as that have been some incidents of rural crime in recent weeks in the Washford and Carhampton areas. Please report any suspicious incidents via 999 if ongoing. If not already a member please consider joining farm watch.

Autumn Exmoor Focus

Over the Autumn/Winter period, we will be focussing on engaging with our rural communities through scheduled visits to Cutcombe Market and our many villages. Details of visits are listed on this website. We will be targeting any areas of anti-social behaviour and working with partner agencies to resolve issues.

If you have concerns, come alone and talk to us at one of the events listed or make contact via 101 or Avon and Somerset website.
